

The Right Reverend Jeffrey Devan Robinson D.D.

Pastor Jeffrey Robinson Sr, is a native of Jacksonville, Florida where he was reared by his parents in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Bishop Robinson confessed his faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and was baptized at the tender age of 9 years old. From an early age, it was apparent that the hand of the Lord was upon his life as he was developing a hunger and thirst for righteousness and a passion for Christian Education as a teen. He is a beneficiary of generational blessings as his father has pastored for over 50 years, and his three brothers are called to ministry as well. Bishop Robinson attended Bethune-Cookman University where he played men's basket and served as team captain. He has always placed education as a top priority and has prepared himself well to walk in his new assignment in the Episcopacy. He attended Reformed Theological Seminary and has a Doctorate of Divinity from St. Thomas Christian College of Jacksonville. Bishop Robinson served under the founding Senior Pastor, Bishop Derek Triplett of Hope Fellowship Church in Daytona Beach, where he received Holy Orders and was ordained an Elder. In October of 2003, he was called to the Pastorate at Mt Carmel Missionary Baptist Church of Daytona Beach (www.themountfl.org), where he has distinct honor of having the longest tenure in the 88 year history of the church. He has watched God pull down strongholds through prayer and fasting. God has blessed Bishop Robinson with a beautiful family for which he is truly grateful. Bishop Robinson, is a co-founder of The New Covenant Apostolic Order Joint College of Bishops and has been seated at the "table of twelve," The Ordo Synodi Episcoporum, serving as the Dean of Academics/Canon Law Research Initiative.
